that he will start the mutual killing no matter what
but that guy said it's useless to stop him i... i happened to see him hidding a knife so i wanted to stop him
.....
that's right
explain yourself... komaeda!
what i'm looking for is a "great hope" that can overcome all kind of despair because i can't be bright like you, so i want to see you guys sparkling i wanted to see you guys in your "hope" form, so i came up with a murdering plan things become stronger through exercise, right?

think about it
fans wish their favourite boxer could fight against strong opponents and win
what...
what are you saying I totally can't understand
mmh
it might look like that from your point of view
is all this just for fun ?!
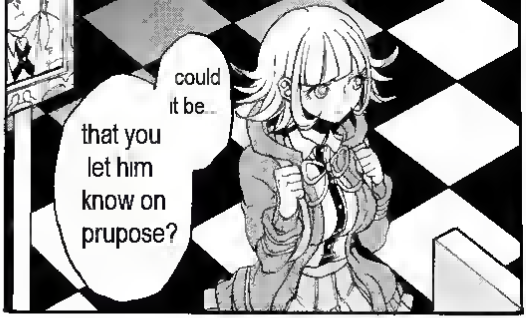
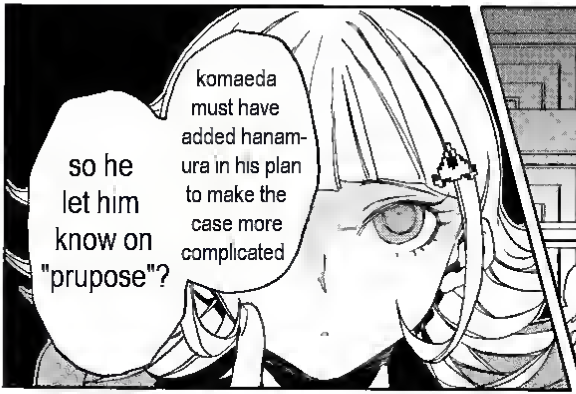
I don't understand what you're saying I've never had shameless thoughts such as leaving everyone and liv but I'm not like those who do crimes for fun



could it be...
that you let him know on prupose?

that's why
it's not a problem for me even if hanamura knew my plan



so he let him know on "prupose"?
komaeda must have added hanamura in his plan to make the case more complicated huh?!

that guy
he's terrible! completely insane!

yea, that's right i was really looking forward to it and also... i'm the one who told him about the hidden entrance

no!
it's not like that!
didn't you also think that it was a good opportunity knowing komaeda's plan?
upupupu
to save every-one !
b-but ...
I just did it to stop koma-eda
at the end, you just wanted to survive yourself leaving your classmates behind, huh?
if you kill him using his own plan, you won't be caught, right?

i promised her that i will become an outstanding chef and help hanamura restaurant
kuh

that why i must go back !!

w-wait!
i beg you...
at least tell me...
what happened to hanamura restaurant... what happened to mom?
let's get started with the punishment now
upupu

then
let's get excited!
it's punishment time!

this is hopelessly despairing
this kind of execution is... too despair inducting

however we will surely overcome despair and become stronger...

you bastard
are you still laughing?
koma-eda...
what are you saying..?
wait
i'm as sad as everyone
being able to laugh in a situation like this... he's completely crazy!
loosing such a precious hope, how could i cheer up? i love you who fight for hope's sake, i love your outstanding talents from the bottom of my heart

don't try to avoid the question by saying those lousy things i'll kill you!!
sure! you can come to kill me whenever you want
as a stepstone for hope, i'm ready for it
what
but if you want to kill me, please discuss it with me first in this way i'll be able to help the culprit...
s-stop it
don't s-say it don't say it anymore
for someone talentless like me... it would be a great honor if i could do something to help you guys hey
can i punch you? i can't keep up with this without punching you

it's something to be proud of they become the support to allow the birth of the "hope of despair" even though they're not "hope of despair" togami and hanamura
we admire hope's peak accademy in the same way, so you're the one i feel closest to even hinata-kun is against me? that hurts a little
huh?
stop
i don't want to hear you talking anymore monokuma said it too... we still don't know each other's true nature how could you tell that we can't be compared?
no
don't put me on your same level

but for you guys, it can be a chance to train yourselves a mutual killing like this would be nothing but a disaster for a worthless person

no matter what happens i'll always be a hope's ally
